Subject: Appeal Against the Decision of the Secretary General of FPCCI

Dear Members of the Election Commission,

The undersigned would like to appeal against the decision of the Secretary General of FPCCI, as per his communication No 12176 dated 15-11-2023, regarding the nomination of Mr. Muhammad Bashir Arian. The decision appears to be false, unjustified, and contradicts the actual facts and figures.

To support my appeal, I present the following facts and evidence, grounded on the subsequent grounds:

The decision of the Secretary General contradicts the actual facts.

Mr. Muhammad Bashir Arian belongs to the corporate class of our chamber, and evidence supporting this is enclosed herewith.

He has been a member of our chamber since 2007, and his company is duly registered with SECP, with valid and active NTN and GST.

The enclosed bank certificate explicitly states that the turnover of his business transactions exceeds Rs 50 million. Mr. Muhammad Bashir Arian is the CEO of M/s Adil Traders situated at Khairpur.

Mr Muhammad Bashir Arian has been representative of our chamber on the executive committee of Fpcci and the last one of his representation from our chamber from the corporate class on the EC of fpcci was in 2019

Considering the presented facts, I kindly request that the objection raised in the Secretary General's letter be overruled, and Mr. Muhammad Bashir Arian's name be incorporated into the final voters list.

Best regards,

Sheraz Khan
