Subject: Appeal against the decision of Secretary General FPCCI dated 15-11-2023

Respected Members,

Reference to the subject above cited that this chamber (HCSTSI) has been excluded in the list of the chambers valid for the upcoming election for years 2024-2025.

In this regard we have to say as under:-

That our chamber has paid its annual subscription as and when we received your letter dated 19 May 2023. Letter No. 10014. And the amount on 06-06-2023. The demand in your letter was written as outstanding 2023, Rs. 60,000/-.

It was not our fault, this chamber has to pay only Rs. 60,000/-. But for our surprise that when we filed nomination we came to know that our chamber should pay Rs. 60,000/- more we paid on 7-11-2023, and then on 08-11-2023. Our chamber (HCSTSI) paid the arrears well in time as and when informed.

1. As we have been mentioning time and again that we are living in forflung remote valley. We face isolate when internet facility is suspended for several days. And courier service also takes 20 to 25 days due to different reasons, road blockage, and weather conditions.

2. It is worth mentioning that our chamber is newly establish chamber. And soon after its registration, the pandemic of COVID-19 came and our chamber was facing complete lock down.

Our traders were unable to run any business, and the total economy was in a condition of hibernation. Due to the above mentioned reasons our newly established chamber suffer & numerous setbacks.

We request the honorable members to include our chamber in the list of chambers since this is the first time ever this chamber is participating in FPCCI elections.

We are serving the small traders in our district, we are expecting the honorable federation will give us a chance to serve our people.

Thanks with regard.

Yours faithfully
