RESPONDENTS

APPEAL UNDER RULE 18(6) OF THE TRADE ORGANIZATIONS RULES, 2013
AGAINST THE ORDER PASSED BY THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE FPCCI.

Respectfully Sheweth:

- 1). That through the instant appeal the appellant respectfully seek to impugn the Order dated 05-11-2023 (“the Impugned Order”). Through the impugned order the Secretary General of the FPCCI, rejected the objection filed by the appellant.
- 2). That the Appellant filed the objection before the Secretary General of the FPCCI against the Respondent No. 1 & 2 , that All Pakistan Tyre Importer and Dealer Association (“APTIDA”) nominated Mr. Muhammad Qamar Anwal (Corporate) as EC & GB Proprietor Good Luck Corporation. The NTN profile of above said individual reflects that the said business concern is sole proprietor and the said business concern is neither a body corporate nor a sales tax registered manufacturing concern as well as not have an annual turnover of 50 million. The said business concern is not related to a business of Tyre Importer and section 3(2) (d) read with section 7(3) of the 2013, Act and Rule 2(c) and 3 (2) (d) of the 2013 Rules provides that an Association is organized to represent the stakeholders of specific trade, industry or services. The business of the above said representative does not related to business of Tyre Importer therefore does not fulfill the criteria of being member of PTIDA. It is further submitted that the said business concern also does not fulfill the criteria of corporate member consequently could not be a member of PTIDA.

It was further submitted that the APTIDA also nominated Mr. Zeeshan Shaid Sheikh (Associate) as GB as Proprietor Capital Trading Corporation. The NTN profile of above said individual reflects that the said business concern is sole proprietor which is not related to a business of Tyre Importer and section 3(2) (d) read with section 7(3) of the 2013, Act and Rule 2(c) and 3 (2) (d) of the 2013 Rules provides that an Association is organized to represent the stakeholders of specific trade, industry or services. The business of the above said representative does not related to business of Tyre Importer therefore does not fulfill the criteria of being member of APTIDA. It is further submitted that the said business concern also does not fulfill the criteria of corporate member consequently could not be a member of APTIDA.

- 3). That the Secretary General of FPCCI through the impugned order failed to appreciate the vital question of law and facts that were urged before the Secretary General Respondent and is liable to be set aside on the following amongst other grounds:-

GROUND S

- a). That the impugned order is against the law, facts and circumstances of the case available on record.
- b). That the Secretary General while passing the impugned order did not apply its judicial mind and rendered the order contrary to the law hence the impugned order is not sustainable in the eyes of law.
- c). That the impugned order was passed without application of mind and reasoning while deciding the objection, thus the same is non speaking order and cannot be sustained in the eyes of law.

That All Pakistan Tyre Importer and Dealer Association ("APTIDA") nominated Mr. Muhammad Qamar Anwal (Corporate) as EC & GB Proprietor Good Luck Corporation. The NTN profile of above said individual reflects that the said business concern is sole proprietor and the said business concern is neither a body corporate nor a sales tax registered manufacturing concern as well as not have an annual turnover of 50 million. The said business concern is not related to a business of Tyre Importer and section 3(2) (d) read with section 7(3) of the 2013, Act and Rule 2(c) and 3 (2) (d) of the 2013 Rules provides that an Association is organized to represent the stakeholders of specific trade, industry or services. The business of the above said representative does not related to business of Tyre Importer therefore does not fulfill the criteria of being member of APTIDA. It is further submitted that the said business concern also does not fulfill the criteria of corporate member consequently could not be a member of APTIDA.

It was further submitted that the APTIDA also nominated Mr. Zeeshan Shaid Sheikh (Associate) as GB as Proprietor Capital Trading Corporation. The NTN profile of above said individual reflects that the said business concern is sole proprietor which is not related to a business of Tyre Importer and section 3(2) (d) read with section 7(3) of the 2013, Act and Rule 2(c) and 3 (2) (d) of the 2013 Rules provides that an Association is organized to represent the stakeholders of specific trade, industry or services. The business of the above said representative does not related to business of Tyre Importer therefore does not fulfill the criteria of being member of APTIDA. It is further submitted that the said business concern also does not fulfill the criteria of corporate member consequently could not be a member of APTIDA, but the Secretary General dishonestly not given finding upon the said facts. The counsel for the Respondent failed to provide any documents at the time of hearing and sought time for submission of document but not provided any documents.

- d). That the impugned order was passed out side of the scope and limitations of the law and is not sustainable.
- e). That the Secretary General FPCCI passed the impugned order in sheer violation of the Trade Organizations Rules, 2013 and the Trade Organization Act, 2013, which provides the complete mechanism for the inclusion/ exclusion /deletion of any entry in the Provisional/ Final voter list hence the impugned order is not sustainable in the eyes of law.
- f). That the impugned order was passed in violation of Fundamental Rights and Principles of natural justice. That Rule of Justice demands that before any adverse order, penalty or liability was passed or imposed upon a party, it should be afforded full opportunity to meet the case and rebut the evidence used against it hence the impugned order is not sustainable in the eyes of law.
- g). That the learned Secretary General while passing the impugned order overlooked the factum that the Trade Organization Act,2013 which stipulates the procedure in case of contravention of any provision of the Act or any rule or order or instruction, the impugned order was passed by the learned Election Commission arbitrarily, illegally and tantamount to abuse of law, authority as well as the infringement of constitutional and fundamental rights of the appellant ensured under the constitution of Pakistan, hence the impugned order is void, unfair, unjust, unwarranted, arbitrary, malafide, illegal and ineffective qua the rights of the petitioner.

- h). That the impugned order was passed without application of his independent mind and without even realizing that the impugned order not only illegal but also against the Article 17 of the Constitution of Pakistan, 1973, hence the respondent failed to discharge his duties as per exigencies of his statutory responsibilities and acted in excess of their statutory responsibilities and acted in violation of his lawful authority and in violation of law and constitutional mandate. Therefore, the conduct of the respondent no.1 & 2 is violative of the dictates of the Honble Superior Court and needs to judicially reviewed by this Learned Authority.
- i). That the impugned order is based on conjectures and surmises which is not sustainable in the eyes of law.
- j). That while deciding the case and passing the impugned order, the Secretary General did not properly appreciate the documents/evidence on record hence the impugned order is the result of misreading and non-reading of the evidence.

Prayer

In view of the foregoing, it is therefore, most respectfully prayed that while accepting the present appeal the impugned order may kindly be set aside in the interest of justice and the names of the Respondent No. 1 & 2 may kindly be excluded in the Final Voter List of the FPCCI.

Any other relief that this Authority Court deem fit and proper may also be granted to the Appellant Company.
