Due Diligence in Action

The "Due Diligence in Action" project aims to enhance the capacity of the Pakistani textile industry in recognizing and implementing Human Rights and Environmental Due Diligence (HREDD) practices.

The implementation will focus on developing robust models that provide practical tools and methodologies for industries to diligence processes. The pilot factories for the project were selected through HREDD Contest.

Now the baseline assessment of 7 pilot factories is completed.

In the next step implementation plan of technical and financial feasibility will be developed in consultation with pilot factories.
