Subject: FORMAL REPRESENTATION / OBJECTION UNDER RULES 18 & 21 OF TOR 2013 TO WITHHELD AND EXCLUDE THE IMPUGNED NOMINATIONS OF PAKISTAN YARN MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION IN FPCCI DUE TO EXPIRY OF TOA LICENSE, DISENFRANCHISEMENT OF MEMBERS, NON-COMPLIANCE WITH SECP MANDATORY FILINGS, AND PENDING SUB-JUDICE PROCEEDINGS

Reference your letter dated 22nd October 2026, received in FPCCI Head Office Karachi on 26th October 2026, raising objections on the nominations sent by Pakistan Yarn Merchants Association as published in FPCCI Provisional List of voters 2027-28, represented with the following written objections:

1. Arbitrary Disenfranchisement and Violation of fundamental membership rights.
2. Expiry of license and lack of statutory authority.
3. Non-compliance with SECP mandatory filings and defective articles of Association.
4. Contested Election process and pending sub-judice proceedings.

The representation aimed purely at upholding the rule of law, statutory compliance, and protecting the constitutional rights of hundreds of long standing trade members of scooter mandi, Faisalabad.

Findings of the Secretary General

1. The representation against above nominations does not qualify being on a plain paper and without proper address/communication contact.

2. The objectors do not qualify the objections, being the former Members / Office Bearers of the Association.
3. The nominations received from PYMA for EC and GB are well in order, supported by required documents, as requested by FPCCI, for the nomination of members.
4. The statutory requirements, license renewal, and the affairs of the Association or any trade body, rest on the competent and relevant authorities.
5. Furthermore, the representations do not qualify to raise the objections at the level of the FPCCI and the Secretary General of FPCCI.

Decision of the Secretary General

In view of the findings, findings, FPCCI restrained to pass any directives for the nominations submitted by the Pakistan Yarn Merchants Association; hence the objection(s) are considered invalid and rejected.
